

Zaelis,

It is good to hear that Nalric was successful – I will make the report to our conspirator shortly.

Unfortunately, I have no good tidings to share with you. The orog's assault on Rolus Keep failed, as was expected, but I have lost contact with Myrissa. Kryla Thorgen informed me that Tusk was drowned beneath the Khyber Pass, and given that I have not heard from your sister in two days, I find it likely that she shared his fate.

I know you two were close, and you have my deepest sympathies. Rest assured in the knowledge that the Undying King will surely reward her for her service at the end of this. Do NOT try to exact personal revenge on these adventurers. Mauthereign has informed me that they should be at the Undercroft during the second half of Moon's Sleep.

Proceed with the plan as instructed and deliver them to Nefarus Grox. He grows restless and we must proceed with the game to ensure the Demon Prince's continued participation. When it is done, have Torg execute the miners and deposit their bodies across the border near Bastion.

I will expect you back in Gloomwrought on our Lord's holy day.

Be safe,

Beauchelain

BLESSED BE THE DARK, ZAELIS

YOU MAY REPORT TO YOUR SHARSHUN MASTER THAT WE HAVE SECURED THE CROWN OF FATE, AND ARE KEEPING IT UNDER WATCH AT A SECURED LOCATION UNTIL NEEDED.

I APOLOGIZE FOR NOT BEING THERE IN PERSON, BUT I HAVE DECIDED TO REMAIN HERE PERSONALLY TO ENSURE ALL GOES AS PLANNED. I AM SENDING SVERNIZUG (THE BEARER OF THIS NOTE) IN MY STEAD. HE IS MY MOST TRUSTED ASSISTANT AND KNOWS HOW TO CONTACT ME IF REQUIRED.
